

Programme

As of 4.6.08

Global Energy and Climate Security Prospects for German – Japanese Cooperation

June 30th 2008 in Tokyo im Keidanren Kaikan, 10 fl.

Otemachi 1-9-4, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Room 1002

Subway Otemachi station, Exit A1 or C1

12:30 Registration

13:00 Welcome Addresses

Friederike Bosse (Secretary General, Japanese-German Center Berlin)
Berthold Leimbach (Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung)

Workshop session I

13:10 Basic elements of the energy and climate policy in Japan, Germany and Europe
Key notes:

Japanese perspective on energy and climate security

Tetsuro Fukuyama

Deputy Chair, Policy Research Committee, Member of the House of Councillors (The Democratic Party of Japan)

Japans new energy strategy – a new paradigm?

Jun Arima

Counsellor for International Energy Negotiations
Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry

European and German perspective on energy and climate security - Strategies and lessons learned

Petra Bierwirth

Member of Parliament

Chairwoman of the Committee on Environment,
Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety
Germany

Q+A -Discussion

Chair:

Berthold Leimbach (Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung)

14:25 Coffee Break

Workshop session II

14:40 Energy efficiency – The energy source of the future?
Technological and regulatory policy options

Energy efficiency in Germany and Europe - chances and challenges for science and economy

Advances, perspectives and opportunities for cooperation

Stefan Lechtenböhmer

Wuppertal Institut für Klima, Umwelt, Energie, GmbH

Co-director, Research Group „Future Energy and Mobility Structures”

Energy efficiency in Japan

Policy, implementation and areas of cooperation

Risaburo Nezu (Senior Managing Director, Fujitsu Research Institute)

Technology or regulatory policies-

Antagonistical or complementary strategies?

Martin Jänicke

German Council of Environmental Advisors/ Free University Berlin

Q+A -Discussion

Chair:

Martin Schulz (Fujitsu Research Institute)

Workshop session III

16:00 Emission Certificate Trading – The solution of the CO2 problem ?

ETS - How a global system should work

Friedemann Müller, SWP

Implementation and first experiences in Germany and Europe

Frank Schwabe, Member of Parliament,

Speaker for Climate Affairs and

Rapporteur on Emission Trading in the SPD Parliamentary Group

Germany

Emission trading – suitable for Japan?

Hiroshi Hamasaki

Fujitsu Research Institute/

Center for International Public Policy Studies

Q+A -Discussion

Chair:

Reiji Takeishi (Tokyo International University)

17:45 Concluding remarks

Frank Schwabe,
Member of Parliament
Speaker for Climate Affairs and
Rapporteur on Emission Trading in the SPD Parliamentary Group
Germany

18:00 End of the conference